

VIRGINIA MANUFACTURERS ASSOCIATION

"The VMA is a strong and an effective ally. They are a trusted resource that many lawmakers and I count on." — VA Speaker of the House, Bill Howell, Manufacturing Week, 2005.

"The manufacturing community, the manufacturing sector, remain the heart and soul of Virginia's economy". — Governor Mark Warner, Manufacturing Week, 2005.

Industry's Advocate Since 1922

The VMA is the only Virginia association that is exclusively dedicated to the shared vision of manufacturers and their allies.

- Advocacy Services — insures Virginia policies & regulations are pro-manufacturing
- Insurance Services — offers competitive group and voluntary insurance to members
- News & Communications Services — informs members, lawmakers and the public about business & government affairs affecting industry
- Business Services — provides dozens of discount products, services & programs to members
- Events — offers the best industry-focused professional development and networking events in Virginia

Top Five Reasons to Join VMA!

1. VMA is rated a "Top 10 Lobbying Organization in Virginia" and has a professional staff with an 86% success rate on priority legislation
2. Members can save money on insurance services
3. Members receive communications and news resources valued at $500 annually
4. Members have access to over $2,200 in free business services
5. Members have access to over 25 exclusive, statewide events annually

JOIN NOW!

Contact Joe Croce
804.643.7489, ext. 17
jcroce@vamanufacturers.com
1108 E. Main St., Suite 700
Richmond, VA 23219-2805
www.vamanufacturers.com

To Promote a Better Understanding of Industry's Role in Protecting the Environment

