

West Point Woman: How character is Created and Leadership is Learned.

A Leadership Book for the Ages: Principles to Guide You & Stories to Inspire You!

West Point Woman is a leadership memoir written by one of the first women to graduate that venerable institution. This book is for readers at all levels of organizational leadership, and applicable across industries, genders and professional expertise.

- What are the LEADERSHIP SKILLS that the first women at West Point learned, which helped them succeed in an often-hostile environment?
- What are the LEADERSHIP PRINCIPLES that make a West Point woman resilient and extraordinary, and how might you incorporate those tenets into your own leadership repertoire?

West Point Woman, the new book by Sara Potecha, offers up a leadership arsenal.

As an exceptional storyteller and leadership practitioner, Sara will arm you and your organization with the essential leadership skills needed to fight the “battles” of your current experience. Now available for pre-order on Amazon.

About the Author

Sara Potecha is an accomplished Author, Speaker and Consultant who has led cultural transformation initiatives for Fortune 100 and 200 companies and coached hundreds of leaders to higher levels of performance. A masterful story teller, Sara is a sought-after speaker on such topics as women in leadership, veteran employment, emotional intelligence, resilience, change and leadership competency. She captures her audiences through powerful and often hilarious personal stories that teach her readers how to cultivate their character within.